LOCAL BREVITIES.

Circuit Court again to-day.

Never was the fruit prospect more promising.

The late grand jury returned eight indictments.

The Ironton School Board will probably select teachers to-day.

Judge Zwart is still holding Probate Court, the docket running beyond the usual week.

Mrs. S. L. Ginsburg, of Campos, Brazil, is visiting her father, Rev. Morton, in this town.

Monday gave us a touch of summer. The thermometer registered 98 degrees in the shade.

Mr. Fred. Beard will this day be united in marriage to Miss Laura Shy of Sabula, Mo.

A reply to "Isaac" and Dr. Boyd will appear next-week. Also, several other communications.

Arnoldy has put a spring coat of paint upon his dwelling, and it flashes out in clean, bright, variegated color.

The Board of Directors for the Academy of Music will hold a special meeting on Friday of this week, at the hall, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Regular meeting of Star of the West Lodge, No. 133, A. F. & A. M., Saturday evening this week. All the Masons are invited. Election of officers.

If you want a first-class Upright Piano, at bed-rock prices, Mr. Yates can accommodate you. He sells direct from the factory, and saves freight charges.

The Lyon Comedy Co. busted into fragments at Piedmont. We regret that it should be so, for we found them when here to be painstaking, sober, industrious people.

Acadia's Easter war is still on, but we hope not for long. Our neighbors across the creek are wont to be peaceful and forgiving, and generally dwell together in unity.

Miss Annie Byers is in Chicago, visiting relatives. She left Ironton about a week since, accompanied by her father and grandmother. Capt. Byers returned a few days after.

County Court met in special session last Monday and appointed W. H. Fisher and W. A. Fletcher members of the Institute Board for this county. Mr. Hickman is a member ex-officio.

The Supreme Court yesterday decided that Leo Doyle is the Receiver of the Kountz Railroad. This gives the Missouri Pacific a very black eye and virtually settles the long continued controversy.

Attention is directed to the law-card of Wm. L. Beyersdorf in this paper. Mr. B. is a lawyer of fine attainments and extended practice. He takes up his domicile in Ironton, and we commend him to our people.

Mr. Montgomery of Toledo, Ohio, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Wheelahan, at this place. He says he is delighted with the Valley and that it is sure to become a favorite resort for all who admire the beautiful in nature.

There will be an exhibition given by the Colored School of Ironton, Mo., Tuesday, May 7, 1895, at the City Hall. Admission 10 cts; teachers and ministers admitted free. All are invited.

D. W. KENNEY, Teacher.

The News is the name of a paper started last week at Fredericktown—E. L. Purcell, editor. Republican in politics, but straight on the silver question. Shake, brother! We greet you and congratulate you upon having a neat and creditable paper.

A burglar entered Truener's establishment at Middlebrook Monday night and stole some money and a suit of clothes. We have no particulars, but commend the taste of the gentleman who did the job. Whatever else may be said of him, he is well dressed.

The Sons of the Revolution have recently conferred on J. Proctor Morton of the U. S. Naval Academy, and son of Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Morton of this place, a handsome Medal for the best Essay on the "Principles of the American Revolution." This Medal was conferred to the First Class men of the U. S. Naval Academy.

An advance agent's opinion of Ironton: "This is a—bun town; there are few people here and they are largely on the bum orbit. We can do no business here; this place is a—fraud." This opinion was expressed by the advance agent of a so-called Medicine Company, after spending about twelve hours in the town trying to work up an interest in the coming of his company.

A story comes to us from Annapolis of the outraging of two women on the road between that town and Sabula. The women were strangers, coming northward foot, and it is said were roughly used; knocked down, beaten and outraged. We understand an effort was made to have the grand jury inquire into the matter; but as the women had disappeared, we presume no definite action was taken. No matter who the women were, or of what character—and nothing is known against them—if the story told us is true, the miserable scoundrels who abused them ought to be sent to the penitentiary.

The Lyon Comedy Company played here all last week. The attendance was not sufficient to meet their expenses, and after Saturday night's performance the company went to pieces. The boys had to contribute a little money to assist some of them to St. Louis. The company was said to be one of the best on the road. The members all seem to be clever, people and only "hard luck" broke up the company. They went out of town with less money than they brought into it.—Piedmont Banner.

The grand jury for the April term concluded its labors last Saturday at noon, and was discharged, after submitting the following report: "We, the grand jury, duly empaneled and sworn to and for the April (1895) term of circuit court, county of Iron, State of Missouri, report that we have made a thorough examination into the condition of fire escapes and means of egress in case of fire, and find none provided as required by law, in each of two three-story hotels situated in Arcadia. The third story, in each building is not occupied, but is intended for occupancy, within the meaning of the law, during the coming summer. We also find the third story of the Keeling House provided with a few small porches to be used as fire escapes, but which, for purposes intended, are practically useless. Further, we have visited and examined the county jail, finding it in condition to safely keep prisoners thereto committed, and in good repair, except the door to one cell, which door is bent or sprung so that it will not fasten. We found the sanitary condition as good as possible under existing circumstances; but on plea of humanity to inmates, condemn the high board fence which surrounds the building so closely as to prevent free circulation of the air, and fair ventilation necessary to health and comfort of prisoners during warm weather. We do recommend the removal of said fence and that a neat, strong and safe iron or steel picket fence be erected in its place. We do condemn the water-closet or "privy" attached to the courthouse premises as indecent, a nuisance, and an insult to those required to attend court, and visit the place, and which, if upon private premises, would be promptly prosecuted. This matter has been brought to public notice by former grand juries, and we urge that the proper authorities remove the present offensive structure and cause to be built a suitable and commodious water-closet. Having completed all business now before us we ask for immediate discharge.

G. W. CHAINE, Foreman.

P. S.—To Prosecuting Attorney J. B. Walker, we, as a grand jury, desire to tender, publicly, a unanimous vote of thanks for his carefully arranged list of cases for us, efficient help in securing evidence, and prompt and willing assistance in all matters in which we have consulted him.

Acadia News.

Jas. M. Baird, of Senath has been visiting his mother.

Mrs. O'Brien spent Tuesday in St. Louis.

Miss Van Winkle was in St. Louis Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Kate Green is visiting Mrs. Keyburn.

Mr. Cline went to Poplar Bluff last week.

Mr. Robt. and Joel Holloman are often seen on our streets.

Gus Hinchey of De Soto has been visiting his grandfather, Judge Holloman, for a few days.

Allow me, if you please, to correct a "harmful and misleading statement," as Mr. England terms it, which appeared in your last issue.

It seems to me rather strange that he should not call it a simple article of news and call it an announcement.

He even took the trouble to run down to Miss Baird and demand the meaning of such an announcement, as if she was responsible for what appeared under the head of "Acadia Items." Permit me to say to Mr. England that no announcement had been made, only in the "Acadia Items," and that I simply stated it as an article of news. It was not wholly without authority, either, for Mr. Whitworth, the Sup't, had consented to have the exercises, and Miss Baird kindly took the trouble to train the children; but Mr. England happened to be at Sunday School the next Sunday, and made some lengthy remarks in which he said the entertainment was without authority. He said neither he nor the Sup't had been consulted about the matter. He was corrected in this statement; for, as I said before, Mr. Whitworth was consulted and gave his consent without hesitation. Nevertheless Mr. E. advised the children to continue practicing, and he would help them and try to make the exercises a success. After everyone had learned their part well, Mr. Whitworth handed the proposed program to Mr. E. for his worthy consideration. Saturday before Easter passed, and no decision yet. Easter morning dawned; no answer yet, and, for all I know, there never will be, as far as Mr. E. is concerned. Now, Mr. E. does not hesitate to say that he is the head of the Sunday School, yet he is seldom found at his post, only since this trouble here is almost a regular attendant. He says that he was acting under the Elder's instructions on Easter day, but we have good reasons to believe that the Elder was never made acquainted with both sides of the question, and he seemed at a loss to know why the members took so little interest in the services. We happen to know some things the Elder says about this matter, and we will mention them if Mr. E. demands it, for they are not strictly against us; but Mr. E. says the President, Elder fully endorsed his course. If he did, should not Mr. E. have said so? He should have told the children they could not have their longed for entertainment, and not have disappointed people. That is the reason I said the children were disappointed, and any one that could look a congratuatory in the face would have seen plenty "evidence" of such. Mr. E. says, "The most faithful are in perfect peace and duty." Allow me to say that I would state his views plainly, give his decision "yes" or "no"; not accuse people of misrepresenting him, and never get angry over a simple article of news and call it an announcement. Mr. Editor, it pains me deeply to be thus in opposition to a minister, and use so much space in your valuable paper, but I feel it my duty as a Sunday School scholar; therefore, I have no apology to offer. JEROME.

Pilot Knob Items.

While in Stockton, Cal., some time ago, Thos. F. Langan, of Los Banos, that state, was taken very severely with cramps and diarrhoea.

He changed to meet Mr. C. M. Carter, who was similarly afflicted. He says: "I told him of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and we went to the Holden Drug Store and procured a bottle of it. It gave Mr. Carter prompt relief and I am now cured by its having cured me." For sale by all dealers.

Des Arc News.

We are suffering for rain.

Everybody from our town went to court last week.

Business of all kinds has improved very much in the last 30 days.

Stevens & Rubie shipped 80,000 feet of lumber last week—all pine—mostly car timber.

Thos. P. Fitz had 22 teams hauling lumber last week.

There were also seven car loads of cattle shipped from here last week, and one car goes to-morrow.

Evans & Russell sold 400,000 feet of pine lumber last week to the Missouri Cattle Co. They have an order to build two thousand cars for the M. C. & T. R. R. The Madison Car Co. also has a big order for cars.

Our merchants here are doing a good business. Mr. Morris and E. W. Graves are selling one hundred dollars' worth per day.

E. W. Graves is building a large barn, 8x100; he gets the lumber (p. n.) from T. P. Fitz. Mr. Brown, formerly of Annapolis, is building it.

Jno. Berryman has built a new house on his lot.

Cicero Lucy has bought the Stamey house from E. W. Graves.

Mr. Graves scattered a lot of manure on his meadow last winter—about 20 acres—and the grub worm has come up through this manure and destroyed all the grass. It will not do to top dress a meadow; it must be plowed under.

Our agent, Ed Homan, has a $50 bicycle. He makes her go at the rate of 25 miles an hour.

Willie Hickman, the boy who was charged with burning E. W. Graves' barn, came clear before the grand jury, and is at home.

Miss Morley of Piedmont is a guest of Miss Bessie Morris.

Miss Ella Collins is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Ed Homan.

Jno. Loyd and wife have moved to Irondale. He has a section there.

One of the most singular law-suits came off before Squire Johnson Saturday. I never heard of. Some years ago Bud Nichols went security for some fruit trees for Jim Hickman, and the trees had to be paid, and some time ago Bud Nichols borrowed Hickman's harrow, and when he got through with it he concluded to keep the harrow for the debt, which was about $9. So Hickman brought suit for the harrow, and Nichols had to return the harrow and pay about $10 costs. So he is out $19 for the fruit trees and harrow. So much for going security. ISAAC.

When fevers and other epidemics are around, safety lies in fortifying the system with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A person having thin and impure blood, is in the most favorable condition to "catch" whatever diseases may be floating in the air. Be wise in time.

From Annapolis.

Ed. Register—Judge Hart leaves for Ironton and St. Louis to-day.

The series of meetings held by the M. E. Church here, and conducted by Bro. Humphreys, assisted by Revs. Lowe of St. Louis and Pisco of Piedmont, came to a close Saturday.

There were two conversions, and one addition to the church. An Epworth League was organized during the meeting, with a membership of 17.

I say by your last issue that "Uncle Isaac" is still whacking away at the abcess people—and, by the way, in answer to "Sabula" of last week, "Murphy" did not call them that name, but only related a little story in which one of "Sabula's" fellow townsmen is said to have called the "Advantage" meetings the abcess meetings. We agree with "Uncle Isaac" in his opinion, but not in his way of expressing those opinions. "Crux" doesn't envy him in his controversy, however, having had all of that in the past that he liked, I am not anxious to enter the lists again. So we will just say to "Sabula," observe Saturday. If you like, and Sunday, too, if you can; but we have so many that observe all the seven days—that is, to the extent of abstaining from labor—that we would not know an abcess brother if we met him in the road. No offense is intended. "Crux," in spite of his name, is guided in this matter, as in many other matters, by the sentiments laid down by Paul in the first five verses of the fourteenth chapter of his Epistle to the Romans.

Dr. Cline was in town a few hours one day last week.

Miss Mathias Bonson attended the I. O. O. F. celebration at Charleston. She reports a grand time.

J. S. Bonson was in Ironton one day last week.

Wm. Towl has gone to Bonne Terre. W. A. Simpson is at home from St. Louis.

C. D. Alexander is at home on a visit to his family.

Illinois Democrats are taking the lead in the silver issue—or financial issue, if you prefer that term. What is the matter of the Missouri Democracy?

"Where are we at?" We, who have the great apostle of free silver, R. P. Bland—are we going to lie idly by and let others take the lead? Of course the State Central Committee will do nothing, having fallen into innocuous desuetude. Wake up the County Committee, Mr. Editor, and let us have an expression of the opinion of the Democrats of Iron county on this question. This is going to be the battle-ground of '96, and the party that evades the issue will be lost in the woods. No straddle will go next year, and if both old parties make ambiguous platforms on this the greatest issue before the American people, a new Silver Party will rise that will relegate them both to the things of the past. CRUX.

Graniteville Items.

The story is rife that the Iron Mountain Ore Company will soon begin prospecting on the Thomas and Col. Swiney farms, west of this place, for mineral. It is to be hoped they will strike it rich, and quickly, too. April 30, 1895. CAP.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. G. Gundersen, Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last for hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. "Trial bottles free at Crisp's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1. 1

There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substances. For sale by all dealers.

A Card of Thanks.

Ed. Register—If you will kindly allow us space we take this method of expressing our heartfelt thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted us in so many ways during the sickness and death of our darling babe. Such kindness will never be forgotten, and you will ever hold a place in our memory and our prayers.

Mrs. and Mrs. Kress. Bellevue, April 20, 1895.

From Goodland.

Ed. Register—March with us ended with a ground-soaking rain which was badly needed. Since that time we have had but one heavy rain-fall—April 16th. This month has so far been the driest April within our recollection.

Quite often clouds have gathered in the mass, but have dispersed without giving us more than a light drizzling rain; consequently, though the weather was unusually fine for outdoor employments, growing-crops and those just planted have not had the abundance of moisture needed for thrifty growth. The effect of a drought at this season—in fact at any time—are more apparent in this section of country than they are in localities favored with deep, clay soil, instead of the comparatively shallow, gravelly soil common to this country. However, if next month proves to be a "wet May," and abundant rains fall throughout the summer, we may yet harvest "a barn full of hay" and other bountiful crops. Taking everything into consideration, the prospects for good crops of all kinds and for a reasonably fair supply of fruit are quite promising.

Wheat looks well; oats and the earlier planted corn are up, and fruit-trees—except peach-trees—are heavily loaded with blossoms. Most peach-trees have—or had—a few—in most cases very few—blossoms on them. Perhaps the quality of peaches this year will be sufficiently superior, to offset the meager quantity grown.

Farmers throughout this and adjoining neighborhoods utilized the beautiful weather of this month by preparing ground for crops and planting and sowing as soon as the earth was sufficiently warmed to ensure the germination of seeds; hence most all are done planting corn and sowing oats, excepting in new-ground fields, which have not all been planted yet.

Mr. F. J. Robinson, of Courtois, Mo., was in this neighborhood on business recently.

Wm. Crocker, Jr., and his brother Stanton and their families, have removed to Springfield, Mo.

Died, on April 4th, 1895, Adeline Gillam, the 10 yr. old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gillam, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Payne, Sr.

On April 18th, 1895, Mrs. Emily Turner died at the residence of her son, W. W. Turner, at Quaker, Washington Co., Mo. She left numerous relatives in this and adjoining communities to mourn her loss. W. W. Turner was her only son and Mrs. Wm. Baskett, of Newport, Ark., her only daughter.

The following named persons visited relatives in this vicinity recently: Miss Lizzie McLain and her brother Charles, and Wallace Martin and family of Oak Creek.

Lee Erbschloe, and his mother, visited relatives near Belgrade this week.

Augustus Wood, Jr., has been employed to teach the school in the Laramore district, and it is said, Mr. W. D. Day is expected to teach the Good-water school.

Several persons hereabouts who were out of bread stuff and feed, bought wheat at 60 cents per bushel at Belgrade and Sunlight.

Owing to the scarcity of feed much of the live stock of this locality was turned on the range quite poor. April 26th, 1895. R. E.

Mrs. Mary C. Whitworth.

The subject of this brief sketch was born in Madison county, Mo., April 30, 1854, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tidwell. The family removed to Iron county in 1858, where eight years later the husband and father departed this life, followed a few months later by his sorrowing widow. Four children—three sons and one daughter—had been born to this union, all of whom except the latter, survive. With the death of her parents, the daughter became a member of the family of I. G. Whitworth, Sr., her uncle, and under careful, affectionate guidance, grew to womanhood. In the winter of 1873 she taught school in Madison county, and there met, and in the March following became the wife of P. W. Whitworth, the present Treasurer of this county. Of this union were born five children, and of those three sons survive to cheer the mind of the father and divide the burden of his sorrow.

Gentle, kind, affectionate, Mrs. Whitworth embodied in herself the graces which endear their possessor, to all. She had no enemy, for her path through life had been strewn with the flowers of kindness, charity and self-sacrifice. Greater mead of praise cannot be given, and the memory of her virtues, while they give added keenness to the present pangs of grief which darken the lives of those nearest and dearest to her, will in time be a balm to their wounded spirits. It must bless them through life and make them when the end comes lighter to enter the presence of the angelic host.
